Events & Announcements

7 February, Liturgies will resume in the Church for congregations of 20 people. Please sign up online as before through Eventbrite.

Marina Fennel, a long-time member of Oxford's Orthodox community, fell asleep in the Lord on Monday 1 February. She died peacefully at home after receiving Holy Communion. Funeral arrangements are scheduled for 8 and 9 February, and will be streamed online. Marina's son Nicholas Fennell has written about her life here. Memory eternal!

Metropolitan Kallistos returned home from hospital on Tuesday evening after a successful operation, although the whole process has of course left him somewhat tired. He is in good spirits but will need a little while to recover fully — meanwhile he sends his blessing to the parish and thanks for all prayers on his behalf!

Covid-19 Resources

Food concerns for yourself or someone else?

As the lockdown continues, it is possible that you or someone you know may need assistance sourcing food. Please email community@holytrinityoxford.org.uk for help from the One Canterbury community. For additional recommendations in Oxford more generally, read the Oxford Together food access information sheet here. To summarise:

- If someone is healthy and able and just needs information, there is guidance for Grocery and Supplies shopping in Oxford here. One thing to note is that if you can't get a delivery slot with a big supermarket, lots of local services are delivering.
- You can make a Practical Support request to Oxford Together using this form (<https://forms.oxfordtogether.org/support-form>), and the organisation will connect you with a Street Champion or Practical Support volunteer.
- If someone is in urgent food need, they can request a next-day Community Larder delivery using the same form. Someone will call them to make sure that all they need is a Community Larder box — as it is only a top-up — and if they need more assistance, will be able to provide that as a one-off (e.g. other foods, nappies, baby milk etc), as well as helping them access any additional food support they might require.
- If someone needs access to a Food Bank, here is a database of Oxford Food Banks.

We are grateful to all the parishioners who have brought their membership up-to-date and established standing orders. The pandemic has of course had a large impact on in-person donations and caused our usual fundraising events to be cancelled, so if you are in a position to support the parish financially donations via PayPal or a standing order would be timely (email for details)! Please also consider gift aid which allows our community to claim additional funds on your donation.
