Arte TV provides a wide variety of free films, documentaries and arts programming you may have missed, for example this short, subtitled German film about cats in the Hermitage.

Open Culture has content such as MOOCs, podcasts, audio books, etc. with categories for both adults and children.

An option for listening when you are tired of watching a screen — this 100-strong collection of short stories available on BBC Sounds (free, registration required).

Oxford City Council Activity Hub provides further resources for things to do at home, <https://www.oxford.gov.uk/activityhub>.

Age UK – Support in Isolation

- The Oxfordshire branch of Age UK has introduced a new telephone support system for elderly people as they face months of isolation.
- While the charity will be pausing all events, activities and groups as a precautionary measure, concerned residents can phone 01865 411 288 and leave their name and phone number to receive a call back.
- Assistance includes a friendly, weekly call to see how you are, and problem solving if you are facing practical problems.
