Events & Announcements

Friday 24 September, 9am liturgy for the feastday of St Silouan. Verses: Once, in this life, thou didst see Christ, O Saint; And now thou beholdest Him face to face, not darkly as in a glass. Thine earthly country delights that thou wast born in her; Athos rejoices in the Spirit; for in thee she nurtured a saint; And from that Sylvan mountain heaven has now received thee. (We keep the usual fasts this week.)

Archbishop Nikitas has announced that His All-Holiness, Ecumenical Patriarch Bartholomew will visit the Greek Orthodox Archdiocese of Thyateira and Great Britain for 100th Anniversary Celebrations of the Archdiocese. His All-Holiness will be with us next year, between 21-24 October 2022.

Coffee hour after Sunday Liturgy is being held in the garden when weather permits. We have volunteers to cover a number of Sundays, but would be grateful to have alternates who are willing to cover regularly, or from time to time. Clean-up is minimal and the process has been simplified further recently. Please email Chara at events1@holyltrinityoxford.org.uk to volunteer or if you have further questions.

*Please join the community welcome for Chara & Philip
after their recent wedding in Greece!*

Sunday 19 September

There will be a marriage prayer said for the happy couple after liturgy, then we'll picnic all together in the garden.

Coffee & cake will be provided
Please bring your basket and a blanket!
