Events & Announcements

Sunday 17 May (tomorrow) we will have a mini food-fair to raise seed money for our larger, public event on 10 October. There will be delicious savoury and sweet foods available in the House of Ss Gregory & Macrina after the Liturgy, so please stay for lunch and a sweet. (Takeaway will be available as well!)

Saturday 30 May at 9am Fr Ian will serve a Liturgy for Saturday of Souls. Please give him your names by midnight on Friday if you cannot come in person.

2 March marked the 40th anniversary of Fr Ian's ordination as a priest! We will celebrate officially on Pentecost (Sunday 31 May) during our bring-and-share lunch, and now invite those who wish to donate toward a gift to do so at the gathering or using the QR code at left. The parish has chosen some of his beloved books, and anything over will support his pilgrimage to Greece.

Our community e-bulletin began rather suddenly as a weekly source of support during the Covid crisis, and then continued as a useful monthly communication. 108 issues later we are in need of a new editor — please speak with Fr Ian or Ann L if this is a volunteer opportunity that might suit you!

Our Bible study sessions with Fr Ian resume on 6 & 20 June, as before following 5.30pm Vespers and in the House of Ss Gregory & Macrina.

Interfaith Friendship Walk Thursday 11 June from 6pm to 8pm

We have an important and timely invitation from the Oxford Council of Faiths to join an annual walk in support of peace and justice, starting at the Oxford Jewish Centre in Richmond Road:

Join us for a walk through the city centre with people of many faiths as we commit ourselves to peace and justice. We will begin our journey from the synagogue in North Oxford via St Giles Church and then on to the University Church in Radcliffe Square before ending our journey at the Stanley Road Madina Mosque. This is a great community celebration and everyone is very welcome to join us.
