Events & Announcements

(Please see our parish website for a full community calendar)

We will continue to read and discuss St Mark's Gospel today, after 5.30pm Vespers at the House of Ss Gregory & Macrina. Then we'll break for August and begin meeting again on 5 September. Also, to help us learn together as a community, Fr Ian will be inviting guest speakers to address the community one Sunday each academic term. Please watch the bulletin for details.

Next Sunday 26 July, everyone is warmly invited to the Community BBQ after Liturgy. Please come and spend the afternoon with friends and family at this festive annual fundraiser! The full meal will be by donation as usual, and we'll have some fun new extras for purchase this year to help with our fundraising efforts, including iced cold-brew coffee, sangria, and ice cream.

Please note two important Archdiocesan announcements, posters below. First, Ecumenical Patriarch Bartholomew will be in London to celebrate Archbishop Nikitas' name day at a fundraising gala on Tuesday 15 September. Second, a series of online classes for people who would like to learn about Eastern Orthodox Christianity will begin on Tuesday 22 September.

We wish Fr Seraphim many years — his feast day falls tomorrow, 19 July!

Celebrating Fr Ian's 40 years as a Priest!

The community gathered on Pentecost (31 May) to celebrate the patronal feast of Holy Trinity, and also to express our gratitude to Fr Ian for the many blessings he has brought to our parish during the 40 years of his priesthood — Axios!

In addition to new vestments, two rassos and a pectoral cross chosen recently during his pilgrimage to Thessaloniki, the parish presented Fr Ian on the day with some of his beloved books — God grant you many years!

Upcoming 2026 Events

- ❖ Sunday 26 July, Parish BBQ after Liturgy
 - ❖ Tuesday 15 September, Patriarchal visit, Abp Nikitas' feastday (poster below)
 - ❖ Saturday 10 October, Annual Food Fair
